There has been no further activity in this case. On February 20, 2008, the Court ordered the parties to file joint status reports every 120 days until the stay in this case is lifted. The parties filed their first joint status report on April 18, 2008. After the Court advised the parties that their second report was overdue, the parties filed a second joint status report on October 30, 2008. Their third joint status report is now overdue. Because the Court previously advised the parties that failure to comply with the requirement to file joint status reports every 120 days might result in sanctions, the parties are HEREBY ORDERED TO SHOW CAUSE why monetary sanctions in the amount of $100 should not be imposed on each party. The parties' joint status report and
